It is all the more amazing when we consider the perfect system of fraud and out rage which constituted the Radical party machinery, and with which for years past they have managed and maneuvered all elections in such a manner as to secure for themselves a certainty of success, no matter what exercitions were made by us to defeat them. Used to victory they went into the contest with all the pressing of success, with all their lines set, and prepared and violence to maintian their hold upon every office of trust, honor or emolument.

The good effects of these results were visible even yesterday, in many ways. Hitherto on the day after an election the County Court buildings have been crowded with gangs of negro politicians, obstructing the halls and public offices, which they were hanging around, for God knows what purpose—certainly not to add anything to the public finances. Yesterday the corridors and halls were empty, the stairway was vacant, and none were seen dodging in and out of the Registrar's office. There were no spoils to be divided, and no rewards to be distributed. The assemblages were, on the contrary, at the "Campaign Saloon," Bob Church's and a few other negro doggeries, where they mer together to console each other and curse the "Democrats."
